

Todd Jones
Pastor

My Dear Friends,

In his Corinthian letter, which has been our focus in worship these last few weeks, Paul warns these new Christians of the dangers of boasting. It is likely that Paul was informed of the presence of conceit and pride among some members of this fledgling church. Of course, the Bible in many places warns us of the danger of human pride and conceit. “Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall” (Proverbs 16:18). Life has a way of humbling us when we forget how much reason for humility we all in fact have! This may well be why Paul said, “For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned” (Romans 12:3). Where do we find this “sober judgment,” and how do we maintain a healthy and honest sense of self? This was of great concern to Paul, and seems to have begun with the simple reminder that “He (God) is the source of your life in Christ Jesus...” (I Corinthians 1:30) When we forget that all that we are and all that we have comes from God, we are prone to begin to forget who we really are. We all need habits of the heart and people we trust to help us face the truth about ourselves, and to save us from the perils of pride and conceit.

Calvin observed that we cannot know ourselves accurately apart from knowing God, and it is always in the community of faith, the Church, where we learn of God. A vital relationship with God, nurtured through the habit of worship, and people who love us enough to tell us the truth, save us from pride. Charles Haddon Spurgeon said, “Beware of no one more than yourself; we carry our worst enemies within us.”

William Barclay rightly pointed out that “pride is the ground in which all other sins grow, and the parent from which all other sins come.” It is usually because of our pride that we find ourselves at odds with others, and what is most often behind us being at our worst instead of at our best. Pride gives way so easily to pretense, and nothing is more unattractive than someone pretending to be something he or she is not. Ironically, there is no lasting peace that we find in our pretensions, and we all long for relationships where we are free to be ourselves, places where we are known and loved. There is much wisdom and no small amount of wit in Spurgeon’s advice, “Be not proud of race, face, place or grace.”

Be thankful for all God’s gifts, but remember from whom and whence they have come. We can so easily take life’s gifts for granted, and subtly turn them into givens, or begin to mistake them for possessions. It is so easy to fall into speaking of God’s gifts using the language of “my” and “mine.” This is why worship is so important to keeping our lives free of pride and conceit. “The Christ we manifest is often too small because in ourselves we have grown too big,” said Watchman Nee. Worship reminds us of the great fact that God is the Author and Giver of everything we enjoy. We always remember this beautifully in worship each week during the offering, when we sing joyfully, “Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.”

“For those who would learn of God’s ways, humility is the first thing, humility is the second, humility is the third.” Saint Augustine knew himself, and he knew that those who humble themselves not only follow the direct command of Jesus, but save themselves from being humbled by life. “For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.” This is our Lord’s promise to us in Luke’s Gospel. Humility is nothing other than what Paul called “sober judgment,” an accurate and honest awareness of oneself as one really is. God hates human pride and arrogance, but delights in humility wherever it is found. We all find that we are drawn to humble spirits as those whose company we treasure. Let the Word of God speak once more to us on this: “All of you be subject to one another, and be clothed with humility; for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time” (I Peter 5:5,6). Until that time...

With Love and Prayers,

Todd

The Mission of First Presbyterian Church, Nashville

To know Christ, to make Him known, and to exhibit His love through worship, education, and service.

Sympathy

The First Presbyterian Church family extends prayers and sympathy to the following people and to other members of their family during their time of loss.

Ash Wednesday Service

Wednesday, March 9

Dinner 5:30 P.M. • Worship Service 6:30 P.M.

Following dinner in Courtenay Hall, Todd Jones will lead the Ash Wednesday service. Sandra Randleman will offer the sermon. The pastors will use ashes to place the sign of the cross upon our foreheads. This symbolic action proclaims our recognition of personal mortality and sinfulness and acknowledges our need for Christ's saving grace. Music will be offered by the Sanctuary Choir and Doxology I Choir.

Dinner reservations are required. The Wednesday School of Christian Living will not meet. Nursery care is available during worship.

Doxology I Choir (grades 4-8) eats dinner and rehearses at 5:30-6:15 P.M.; no other choirs meet.

Congratulations

The First Presbyterian Church family congratulates the following families.

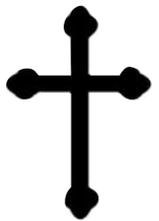

Elizabeth & Ryan Walker on the birth of their daughter, Anne Elizabeth Walker, who was born on November 18. The proud grandparents are Anne & Darryl Edmonds.

Valere Byrd & Benjamin Fulwider on the birth of their daughter, Audrey Claire Fulwider, who was born January 11. The proud grandparents are Marianne & Andrew Byrd. Her proud great-grandmother is Allison Byrd.

Holly & Adam Beck on the birth of their son, Adam Bennett Beck, who was born on January 12.

The Sacrament of Baptism

In the presence of family, the congregation of First Presbyterian Church and God, the following persons claimed God's covenant promise through the Sacrament of Baptism.

Bonnie & Robert Lance presented their son, Shepard Van Lance, for baptism on February 6. Assisting Elders were Lynn May and Eunice Shepard Hewes Meyer, FPC Houston, Texas.

Holly & Gabe Coltea presented their daughter, Anne Victoria Coltea, for baptism on February 6. Assisting Elder was Bill Whetsell.

Daytime Grief Support Group Begins February 16

First Presbyterian Church has been requested to provide a grief support group that meets during the daytime hours. You are invited to participate in a special grief support group beginning on Wednesday, February 16, at 2:00 P.M. at First Presbyterian Church. The grief support group will combine prayer with a study of the psalms of lament and explore how we, like the psalmists, can express our feelings and our petitions for help to God, as we place our trust and hope in God and seek healing. The grief support group will be offered by Dr. Sandra Randleman and will meet for five weeks, February 16 until March 16, from 2:00 P.M. until 3:30 P.M. in Vance Hall.

If you have family members, friends and neighbors who you think would benefit from a grief support group, please invite them to join us. For more information, please contact Sandra (298-9502 or srandleman@fpcnashville.org).

RED CROSS Blood Drive

Blood Donors: This year we are providing you four ways to schedule your donation appointment.

Sunday, March 27
9:00 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.
Enrichment Center

- 1) Make your appointment online from the FPC homepage (www.fpcnashville.org). You will be re-directed to the proper appointment scheduling site within the Red Cross website.
- 2) Make your appointment online at the Red Cross website (www.redcrossblood.org). From the Red Cross site, look for the "Make a Donation Appointment" section on the left side of the page and choose the link labeled "Enter a Sponsor Code." When prompted, enter fpcnashville to find open appointments.
- 3) Contact Patricia Heim in the church mission office (615/298-9593 or adultmissions@fpcnashville.org).
- 4) Sign-up on Sundays in Courtenay Hall during the Sunday School time (March 6, 13, and 20).

Please note the minimum age for donations is 16 with signed parental consent form; no upper age limit. The minimum weight is 110 pounds and your last whole blood donation MUST have occurred prior to January 30.*

Blood Drive Volunteers: We need volunteers to assist with donation sign-ups on select Sundays in Courtenay Hall and to serve on the day of the blood drive to assist with donor check-in, serving snacks, etc. This is perfect for those who might be unable to donate themselves for any reason. Please contact Patricia Heim in the church mission office (615/298-9593 or adultmissions@fpcnashville.org) to let her know your interest and availability.

Lenten Study

You are invited to attend a Lenten study to be led by Dr. Sandra Randleman on Thursdays, March 10 through April 21, from 12:00 until 1:00 P.M., at Downtown Presbyterian Church. The study will be based on a discussion of Dallas Willard's book, The Divine Conspiracy: Rediscovering Our Hidden Life in God. The book seeks to provide an understanding of the gospel that will open the way for the people of Christ to actually do what Jesus taught us to do. Dr. Willard believes that discipleship to Jesus is the very heart of the gospel and that Jesus wants us to live in conformity with His teachings in our life now.

You do not need to have read the book to participate in the study and discussion. Church members and friends are invited to attend. A light lunch will be offered and a contribution for lunch is always appreciated. For more information, please contact Sandra (298-9502 or srandleman@fpcnashville.org).

Get Ready for Summer Splash!

In the cold and gray of January, we are planning for our Summer Splash here at the Early Preschool. Summer Splash begins on June 7. We will have three sessions in June and three sessions in July, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, from 9:00 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. each day. Please check the Early Preschool website at fpcnashville.org/earlypreschool/summersplash for more details or call Julie Miller at 298-9536. Applications are available to download from the site, or you can pick one up at the welcome desk in the children's wing. See you at Summer Splash!

Ministry to Native Americans in South Dakota – Meet the Wonnenbergs

The plains of South Dakota are renowned for many things including the Badlands, Mount Rushmore, Wall Drug, pheasant hunting, and more.

Unfortunately, for the Lakota community near Dallas, South Dakota, this place is known all too well by its residents as a community struggling with alcoholism, broken homes, domestic abuse, poverty, suicide, crime, and the highest unemployment levels in the nation. In a place where people, young and old, are crying out for the redemption and restoration that only knowledge of God's love in Jesus Christ can bring, the Revs. Diane and Charles Wonnenberg lead a mission fellowship to Native Americans.

At the heart of this work is a vision to proclaim the Gospel, to strengthen and equip existing Native American congregations toward a mission vision, and to encourage discipleship through Bible study and leadership training. The plans for the ministry include weekly Bible studies and ministry in Dallas, bi-weekly or monthly Bible studies on reservations, revival services, seminars on evangelism and mission, leadership training in targeted areas, and development of curriculum materials to enhance mission awareness and response for use in congregations on or near Native American reservations.

For the past two years, our church has sent mission teams to serve alongside the Wonnenbergs getting to know the Native Americans being trained for leadership in their congregations. Our teams have been multi-generational in participation and provided both relational and "construction" service opportunities. The 2010 team included participants from FPC as well as members from a Columbia, Tennessee, church. That team, together with a New Jersey youth group, worked on restoring the historic Mniska Presbyterian Church adjacent to a church cemetery that includes former members of the "Wind Talkers."

Additionally, Presbyterian Women from Circle 1 are prayer partners with the Wonnenbergs lifting them up in prayer to support them in their ministry efforts.

To celebrate this growing missionary partnership, the Wonnenbergs have arranged to visit our church in late February. Rev. Diane Wonnenberg will make a presentation to the Adventure Sunday School class that day. She will be joined by Charles for an additional presentation during a luncheon in Vance Hall following the 11:00 service. The presentation will include photos from past mission trips and an update on the most critical needs of the Native American ministry in South Dakota.

Presbyterian Women Circle 1 members are organizing the luncheon gathering and extend an invitation to all members of the congregation to attend. Advance reservations ($6/person) are required for the luncheon and may be made with Dawn Wylie or Judy Fincannon in Courtenay Hall on either Sunday, February 13 or 20. Ginny Tindle will accept paid registrations during regular church office hours.

Please join us in extending a warm welcome to the Wonnenbergs on Sunday, February 27. You might just find that God is calling you to South Dakota for the next mission service opportunity.

“Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God’s grace in its various forms.” 1 Peter 4:10

Comfort from the Manna Freezer

Thursday Bible Study with Todd Jones

Men and women of all ages are invited to join Dr. Todd Jones for his weekly Bible study. The study is on Thursday mornings from 11:00 to noon in the Session Room. The group is studying the Book of Exodus. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to study the Word with our Senior Pastor!

FPC Discussion Group Welcomes You in February

“The Next Chapter” Reading Group
Enters The Lacuna in February

“The Next Chapter” meets Monday, February 28, at 1:00 P.M. in the Memorial Library for a book discussion of Barbara Kingsolver’s bestselling novel, The Lacuna.

After getting kicked out of his American military academy, Harrison William Shepherd spends his formative years in Mexico in the 1930s in the household of Diego Rivera; his wife, Frida Kahlo; and their houseguest, Leon Trotsky, who is hiding from Soviet assassins. Harrison returns to the U.S. where he becomes an author and is later investigated as a possible subversive and ultimately defends himself before the House Un-American Activities Committee (on the panel is a young Dick Nixon). Employed by the American imagination, Kingsolver masterfully resurrects a dark period in American history with the assured hand of a true literary artist.

Listen: New Hearing Assistance Devices

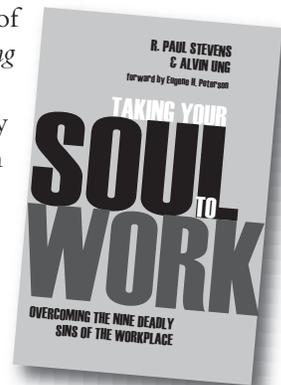

If you are in need of hearing assistance devices during worship services, First Pres recently purchased a new system made by Listen. Several members have commented on the clarity in which they are now able to hear with these upgraded digital components. The charging station for the devices is located in the narthex. Please note the three different ear sets: “loop set,” “outer ear” and the “in the ear” piece.

Your Faith at Work: Taking Your Soul to Work

You are invited to a new study of faith at work using the book, Taking Your Soul to Work: Overcoming the Nine Deadly Sins of the Workplace, by Paul Stevens. Three groups meet in three locations:

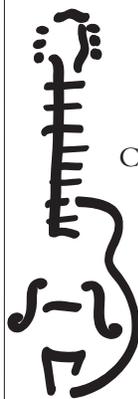

- 1) A Brentwood group on Mondays at 11:30 A.M., in the Gardner Building on Maryland Way.
- 2) A Green Hills group on Wednesdays at noon at Second Presbyterian Church on Belmont Boulevard.
- 3) Downtown on Fridays at the corner of Fifth & Church.

You can purchase the book at Bookmarks, the FPC bookstore. You can register for a group by contacting Stuart Gordon (sgordon@fpcnashville.org or 298-9554).
