

WORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

THE COMING KING

Christmas and Easter focus much of our worship on Christ's birth and resurrection, sometimes becoming the primary way we read the Gospel. In the weeks between these seasons, we will look beyond the bookends of his life and explore how the ministry of Jesus demonstrates his kingship. Jesus does not look like our human understanding of kings, and as citizens of a democratic and individualist culture, do we even know how to serve a king?

The Gospel of Mark invites us to explore how far the reign and rule of Christ extends into our lives. This Lent and Eastertide, join us for virtual and in-person opportunities for corporate worship and Christian community as we seek to enthrone Jesus in our lives.

NEW WORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

To orient our hearts toward worship during Lent and Holy Week, we have added new worship offerings for 2021. From March 3 – March 24, we will gather for a brief, contemplative vespers service each Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. On April 2, our 12:00 p.m. Good Friday service will invite all to consider the last words of Christ through special music, sharing of testimony and reflections on scripture.

LENTEN COMMUNITIES OF BELONGING

The Hymns That Shape Us

The six-week Communities of Belonging (COB) program for the Lenten season begins the week of February 21 and continues through Holy Week, ending the week of March 28. The study will look at five different hymns, giving us deeper insight into the scriptural background, the story of the author and/or composer, and a closer look at the verses and how they speak to the life of faith. Each COB meets weekly, virtually or in-person. To join a COB, register at fpcnashville.org.

LENTEN DEVOTIONAL

As we make our way through the Gospel of Mark, these devotionals written by FPC pastors will help us meditate on this truth: It is Christ alone who is King and Lord over all. Download a copy of the six-week devotional on fpcnashville.org or pick up a copy outside the sanctuary or at the church Hospitality Center.

EASTER CELEBRATION

Saturday, March 27 | 3 – 5 p.m.
Rain date April 3

Join us on the front lawn for an Easter egg hunt, cake walk, photos with the Easter Bunny, and fun activities for the whole family! We will be outside and social distancing. Dress for the weather and wear a mask.

The time is fulfilled,
and the kingdom of God is at hand;
repent and believe in the gospel.
